

Leslie had a great trip and gave us a wonderful summary of textiles and crafts from Ghana. Tim (Leslie's husband taught in Ghana as part of the Peace Corp.

This is only a small amount of the wonderful items that had for display and discussion.

This blanket piece of fabric belong to Peggy who also lived in Kenya for a while and this sort of weaving heighten her interest in strip weaving which she includes in her blanket and throws that she weaves today.

